DOVER, DEL. - The Delaware State Museum consists of three buildings. In the foreground is The Old Presbyterian Church that was built in 1790 on "Meeting House Square" to replace the earlier log Meeting House. Located on Governors Avenue and North Street, the Church was presented to the state, restored and opened as a museum in 1950.

Ektachrome by Ed Kennedy

No. DD 81

Pub. by Ken-Del Productions, 920 King St., Wilm., Del. 93261

Genuine Natural Color Made By DEXTER PRESS, Inc., West Nyack, N. Y.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Dexter

POST CARD